EMMAUS POLICE DEPARTMENT

"Serving Emmaus with Pride and Respect"

Press Release

"A PA. Accredited Law Enforcement Agency"

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 21, 2009

In conjunction with the 100th Anniversary of the Emmaus Police Department, the Police Department will be hosting an open house on Saturday, October 31, 2009. Emmaus Police headquarters located at 400 Jubilee Street, Emmaus, Pennsylvania will be open to the public for tours from 10:00 AM until 2:00 PM. Emmaus Police Officers will be available to answer questions and there will be artifacts and historical items from throughout the years of the department on display in the training room.

The Emmaus Police facility was originally dedicated on November 10, 2006. Although hundreds of citizens and business persons toured the building during that time; there are many other residents who did not have the opportunity to visit the department. In conjunction with the 250th Anniversary celebrations in Emmaus, the police department is celebrating 100 years of professional law enforcement services to the Emmaus community. As a part of the year-long 2009 Anniversary celebrations, the police department is proud to offer another opportunity for the general public to visit police headquarters.

During its 100 years of continued service to the Emmaus community, scores of exceptional men and women have answered the call to duty and have served "Emmaus with Pride and Respect" as law enforcement officers.

The Emmaus Police Department reflects back on its 100 years of service with great satisfaction and looks forward to serving the Emmaus community with the same vigor in the future. The Emmaus Police Department is an accredited law enforcement agency by the Pennsylvania Law Enforcement Accreditation Commission and the Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Association and is currently pursuing national accreditation recognition through CALEA (Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies).

All are welcome to attend the open house. For information or questions, please call 610-967-3113.
