Attempted Child Luring reported to Emmaus Police Dept July 11th, 2014. A resident of Lawrence Dr reported that his children were playing outside in the yard. At approximately 1:15pm a white work van pulled up and stopped by an 11 yr old boy and asked him to come over to the van and offered him candy. When the boy refused, the man threw some candy towards him and drove off. The boy said the driver door was partially open during this encounter. About 2 hours later while riding his bike the van again approached the boy and told him "I know where you live" and drove off. The van is described as a white work van with "Furniture" in black lettering and "Co" in red lettering on the side. The driver is described as a white male in his 50's with a neatly trimmed beard. Anyone who sees or has information on the vehicle is urged to call EPD (610)967-3113.
